Other stories in this anthology are "Old Man Henderson," "The Hunter," "Underground Movement," "The Forest of Zil," and "From the Government Printing Office."

In most of the stories Neville writes of loneliness, isolation, alienation, intolerance of anything or anyone different, and of insanity created by the pressures of living. Along with madness of various kinds, his stories explore the essence of human nature and individuals interacting with one another as well as with society. As Malzberg notes, Neville, unlike many science fiction writers, was a serious author interested in "Big ideas."
